

Leading in Turbulent Times

5th April 2016, 10am – 5pm followed by Reception from 5.15pm

The Grubb School of Organisational Analysis Presents

A one-day seminar for leaders, executives and senior managers to examine the organisational, cultural and transformational challenges we face from the holistic perspective.

In a single day of energising dialogue, challenging paradigms and engaging with wicked dilemmas from your experience, you will gain insights that can make a real difference to achieving progress.

Programme

- 10.00 Registration
- 10.15 Welcome and Introduction
Rebekah O'Rourke, Academic Lead of the Grubb School of Organisational Analysis
- 10.30 Transforming Experience: Experiencing Organisational Dilemmas and Finding Freedom to Make a Difference
- 12.30 Lunch
- 14.00 Leadership Clinics and Action Learning
- 15.30 Coffee / Tea and refreshments
- 15.45 Sense Making and Next Steps
- 16.30 Close
- 17.15 Join us in celebrating the launch of the new book Transforming Experience in Organisations based on The Grubb Institutes, Transforming Experience Framework edited by Professor Susan Long

The content of this seminar forms just part of the innovative MA in Philosophy of Social Innovation delivered by The Grubb School of Organisational Leadership and Analysis, a school of Crossfields Institute International.

Book your place

By email on dialogue@crossfieldsinstitute.com or call us on +44 (0) 1453 808118

Visit the website for more information: www.grubbschool.org.uk

Venue

Bishopsgate Institute
230 Bishopsgate
London EC2M 4QH

full fee £249
includes light lunch